

Three Experts Declare Champion Willard Is in Good Condition--Kauff in Camp and Goes Right to Work

BENJAMIN KAUFF IS MODEST AT MARLIN

He's Going to Show Cobb and the Giants How to Use Bats.

PLAY GAME IN A GALE

MARLIN, Tex., March 14.—John B. Foster, secretary of the Giants, arrived here early this morning conveying Benjamin Kauff and bearing tales of adventure on the long trip from New York. John and Benny, it seems, missed every train connection between Atlanta and Marlin and these delays made them a day late reaching camp. Kauff lost no time getting down to business. He arrived before daylight, but instead of catching up on his sleep he ate an early breakfast, hunted up a uniform and some bats and was out for morning practice before 10 o'clock.

Kauff has not changed his views about hitting in the National League this season. As he was starting for Emerson Park this morning he declared he would make the Nationals' pitchers sorry that the Federal League broke up and forced him to change his field of operations. "I can bat 300 or better in this league," he said. "Just watch Benny. He'll show these guys how to hit. They tell me Cobb is going to show me. Well, I hope he gets in good shape for those guys. I don't want any excuses from him."

Now that he has settled his differences with the New York club Kauff is all attention to business. He did not get into the practice camp this afternoon, but took his regular turn in the batting order this morning, hitting between Merkle and Fletcher. Fred Anderson, formerly of the Federal League, was the first pitcher to serve Kauff, who started training by hitting a long single to center.

Kauff seems a trifle overweight and he put in much of his time today at hunting practice, a great weight reducer. This morning he "choked" every bat in sight and tore the tops of some to get a good grip. Benny says he has two dozen of his own special sticks on the way down here and when they arrive he will make him miserable for the pitchers.

"You can put me down for a job in Friday's game," he told McGraw. "I'll be ready by that time." The Giants play an exhibition against the Waco team here that day.

Secretary Foster says the club has heard nothing from Outfielder Rogers, who is a holdout, and intimated that the club would stand pat on the contract offered to Rogers. "We offered him the salary named in the option he signed when he was in Newark," declared Foster. "It is a good big salary and I think he'll be reasonable."

Outfielder Dave Robertson's case is still a mystery. Foster says Kauff came south by way of Richmond and Atlanta in order that the former could meet Robertson in Richmond. Instead of showing up as he had promised, Robertson telephoned Robertson wired from Norfolk that he was unable to make the trip because his doctor had advised against it. The club now believes that Robertson is unlikely to play ball before summer and that the injury he sustained last winter is more serious than he has admitted.

Manager McGraw pulled a new one today when he lined up five baseball eleven and played a ten inning game. The wind blew a gale and made fielding so difficult that McGraw tried two extra outfielders, McGraw, Doon and Merkle did the pitching. McGraw not caring to expose his regular hurlers to the wind and the risk of getting some arms.

Despite the extra outfield patrol today's game was a sort of a burlesque. Doon and McGraw were the private joke. For McGraw's team Kelly and Burns played the extra positions. Kelly was the right center fielder and Burns the left center fielder. Sherman and Jacobson were the extra men on McGraw's eleven. Between the pitching and the wind the scoring was heavy. McGraw's team won in the tenth inning by a score of 22 to 10. The winners made thirty-three hits and the losers twenty-one. The batting order:
